DiSalle Starts His First Day as Ohio's Top Man

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—If you awoke today to find yourself Governor of Ohio, would you be happy, or would you be afraid? Michael V. DiSalle, a Toledo Democrat, awoke this morning at the governor's mansion in suburban Bexley.

He was governor. He could have been happy. He was, in a way. He could have been frightened. And he was, in a way.

He was the top man among nearly 9½ million Ohioans. It's a position many seek, but few really relish.

DiSalle knew the oceans of flowers in his new office were beginning to wilt, that the over-hearty greetings of Monday will not be forthcoming today.

Today's schedule? Scores of callers at his Statehouse office, most of them wanting some favor. And upstairs: Scores of bills being introduced into the Legislature seeking some change in state laws.

Cuban Rebels Increase Toll Of Executions

145 Former Batista Aides Lose Lives in Quest for Vengeance

HAVANA, Cuba (AP)—The execution toll is mounting as Fidel Castro's military courts continue to exact vengeance for violence attributed to supporters of fallen Dictator Fulgencio Batista.

At least 145 persons had been reported executed between Batista's flight on Jan. 1 and Monday night. More speedy trials were under way, including hearings for possibly 100 prisoners in Oriente province.

The toll took a big jump Monday when revolutionary firing squads reportedly shot 75 persons near Santiago, capital of Oriente, where Castro's rebellion was centered and antirebel repression was strongest.

Inaugural day is a wonderful episode. Joy is unrestrained. But none but the hard-nosed political realist is ready for tomorrow.

The life of Ohio's first four-year-term governor—from this point—becomes tough indeed. DiSalle was sharply reminded of this by the outgoing Republican Governor, C. William O'Neill, who reminded him:

"You are carrying Ohio's progressive banner now. I speak for all Ohio citizens. We like you. We are depending upon you."

"We believe you will rebuff promoters and with a steady hand guide the Buckeye ship of state, holding high the torch of idealism, deny the greedy, resist the evil for liberty, justice and equality for all men everywhere."

O'Neill did not stick around to hear his successor take the oath of office. He and his aides left the Capitol quickly.

DiSalle spoke for nearly 15 minutes in his inaugural remarks.

"We will try to administer your state with every bit of economy possible," he said. "We will meet decent standards for the charges of the state. We will keep the citizens of Ohio completely informed of the good and the bad."

"I pledge to you all of my efforts, all of my abilities to bring to the people of Ohio the best government possible."

After that, DiSalle and the state's new first lady, Mrs. Myrtle DiSalle, took a reception in the Statehouse rotunda.

Dry, Mild Weather Due For Midwest

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Dry and fairly mild winter weather was the outlook for most areas from the Rockies to the Atlantic Coast today.

Showers dampened Western sections of the country and cooler air moved into northern California and the Pacific Northwest. It also was a little cooler in parts of Minnesota.

Considerable sunshine and generally southerly winds warmed East Monday. Southwesterly Gulf winds meant temperatures rising in Florida.

Temperatures were higher than 24 hours earlier in nearly all areas east of the Rockies, with the greatest warming in a belt from northern Alabama and northern Georgia northward through the Virginias into Pennsylvania, Ohio and the Great Lakes.

Rain diminished along the Pacific Coast, with heaviest falls continuing along the central California coast. Light rain fell throughout southern Idaho.

Light drizzle sprayed eastern sections of Texas while light snow was reported in the lower Central Lakes region and northern New England.

Passive, Lonely Woman May Be First Space Pioneer

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP)—A passive, lonely woman may be the first space pioneer.

Col. John Sapp, director of the Air Force's Aeromedical Laboratory at Wright Field, Ohio, says research shows that men "start worrying about their families and become aggressive and irrational" too soon to stand a long and confining trip.

The longest a man has been able to stay in a test chamber has been 42 hours, the colonel told the Alameda-Contra Costa Counties Medical Assn. Monday.

But a single woman who tried, h. continued, lasted five days and wanted out only after her food was used up.

"This particular woman was a passive personality and she had no family or close friends to bind her to vital, earthly concerns," he noted.

Mikoyan Is Handed No Insults on His Visit To Los Angeles Area

LOS ANGELES, Calif. (AP)—Visiting Soviet First Deputy Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan capped a busy Los Angeles tour with a surprise appearance on a local television show Monday night.

The bustling Soviet official hobnobbed with movie stars, college students and dyed-in-the-wool capitalists before dashing through Hollywood in a police-led caravan to keep the hastily made TV date.

Not an egg, tomato or epithet was hurled at Mikoyan all day, in sharp contrast to his earlier visits in Detroit, Cleveland, Chicago and San Francisco. Police and State Department representatives kept him under close guard and will shepherd him to the airport today for his return flight to New York.

On the 25-minute TV program, Mikoyan answered a set of questions—carefully approved beforehand—that were submitted by commentator Paul Coates.

Mikoyan described himself, as he has throughout his United States tour, as a friendly grandfather who feels the differences between the U. S. and the Soviet Union can best be resolved by working closer together, especially in trade.

Could the dispute over the West's occupation of Berlin lead to a war? asked Coates.

"As far as we are concerned, we do not want a war," Mikoyan said through an interpreter. "But it is up to the other side to keep peace."

Earlier in the day, Mikoyan was asked for comment on whether his Saturday meeting with President Eisenhower in Washington might help resolve the Berlin situation.

"I don't know what we will discuss at this time," he said. "But we will discuss everything that will be of interest to Mr. Eisenhower." He merely shrugged when asked whether the Berlin dispute would come up.

Mikoyan lunched with such enthusiastic free enterprise as oil millionaire Edwin Pauley, air-raft executive Cyril Chappellet and movie mogul Sam Goldwyn.

From there the motorcade swung through red traffic to nearby Paramount Studios.

Mikoyan, followed by a large group of reporters and photographers, dropped in on two sound stages. On the set of "One-Eyed Jack" he held a zany bilingual conversation with Marlon Brando.

The actor spoke to Mikoyan in French, as did the Soviet deputy answered in Russian to an interpreter who relayed it to Brando in French.

When he walked onto a nearby set where Jerry Lewis was making "Don't Give Up the Ship," the comedian greeted him.

"Is this the guy? He looks like Aaron Lebedoff."

Mikoyan joined in the laughter when it was explained that Lebedoff was a well-known comic of the Yiddish theater.

Europeans Say Mikoyan Is Fooling Yanks

LONDON (AP)—A leading Vienna newspaper today denounced as "a shameful display of subservience the way in which some American business circles and some politicians are swarming around" Soviet Dep. Foreign Minister Anastas I. Mikoyan on his U. S. tour.

But a German newspaper said direct talks between the Soviet visitor and President Eisenhower and Secretary of State John Foster Dulles "are better than perpetual exchanges of notes" and that Washington should be trusted to uphold Western interests in such negotiations.

A Berlin paper warned against being "fooled by Mikoyan. He knows how to play on Western pians."

These are samples of a dozen views and interpretations of the Mikoyan trip that have been expressed in the European press.

The tour has been on the front pages each day. Hundreds of pictures have been printed showing Mikoyan with American business leaders, governors, movie stars and babies; in supermarkets, motels, and factories—and before backdrops of angry, banner-waving demonstrators.

Some papers have described Mikoyan as a kind of food taster for Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev testing the American reception with the idea that Khrushchev might follow later. Former Premier Georgi Malenkov performed the same kind of chore in 1956 for Khrushchev and Nikolai Bulganin before their visit to Britain.

154 Juvenile Cases Fourth Highest Total in Court Books

The Pickaway County Juvenile Court today reported a total of 154 Juvenile Court cases handled during 1958. This is the fourth highest total in the history of the court.

Last year was the highest, reporting 178 cases, followed by 1954 and 1956 with 162 cases. Included in this total were 53 official delinquency cases; 13 unofficial; 42 juvenile traffic offenders.

A total of 21 dependent and neglect cases; nine special services, and 16 adult cases were handled for a total of 154 cases. Also on the Juvenile Court docket were nine incidental cases.

A total of 26 juveniles were held in detention and 150 days were spent in detention. Highest month for delinquency was recorded in June with 21 cases. Lowest month was September with seven cases.

A breakdown by months showed 15 cases in January; February, 16; March, 11; April, 17; May, 10; June, 21; July, 10; August, 9; September, 7; October, 18; November, 11, and December, 9.

Ike Says 59-60 Budget To Assure Good Surplus

Nixon 'Invites' Space Probe

Veep Sure U.S. Power Better than Russia's

WASHINGTON (AP)—Vice President Richard M. Nixon has indirectly invited a sweeping inquiry into President Eisenhower's defense program. The Democrats are ready to give it a thorough going-over.

Nixon, who has sat in on preparation of the budget, has told fellow Republicans he is satisfied Eisenhower's military proposals will stand up under the most minute examination by the Democratic-controlled Congress.

It is Nixon's belief, as relayed by those with whom he has discussed the matter, that Eisenhower's planned program will keep over-all U. S. military power ahead of the Soviet Union, so that there will be no future "black-mail gap" in relative defense strength despite a current Soviet lead in missiles.

Eisenhower has said the new 77-billion-dollar budget he will send to Congress next Monday will include seven billion dollars for all types of missiles and related armament.

Relative missile strength is one of the issues the Senate Preparedness subcommittee, headed by Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, expects to investigate as soon as Congress is fully organized.

The Senate Space Committee, also headed by Johnson, already is surveying U. S. and Russian accomplishments in the space field. Eisenhower's budget is expected to call for a 700-million-dollar outlay to develop space craft.

DETROIT, Mich. (AP)—Waitress Janet Bundy thought the little boy was playing when he slammed a gun on the restaurant counter and demanded money Monday night.

"I grabbed for the gun," said Miss Bundy, 20, of Detroit. "I thought it was a toy. But the boy grabbed it back first and fired a shot into the floor."

Now realizing it was the real thing, she grappled with the boy when he came around the counter. "He broke away and ran out of the store swearing and cursing," she said.

She described the would-be robber as about 12 years old. He had two companions between 12 and 14 who fled with him.

Police recovered a .38 caliber bullet from the restaurant floor.

Filibuster Rule Modified, But Value Now Is Debated

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate has changed its rule governing debate, but the argument continued today over how big a step it had taken toward curbing filibusters.

"No gain at all," commented Sen. Jacob K. Javits (R-N.Y.), one of a group of Northern and Western senators who had fought to make it easier to throttle filibusters against civil rights bills and other measures.

"A soothing syrup to lull the conscience of America," was the assessment of Sen. Paul H. Douglas (D-Ill.), one of the leaders of the bipartisan fight for a rules change.

Some Southern senators protested that the change—any change—went too far.

But an overwhelming majority of the Senate voted 72-22 for the new rule to allow two thirds of the senators present and voting to cut off debate. A rule in effect since 1949 had required the vote of two thirds of the entire Senate membership, or 66 of the 98 senators.

The rules battle roared to its climax Monday night with senators in sharp disagreement over what the effect of the new rule will be.

But no one questioned that the outcome was a spectacular triumph for Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson

Library Aides Stage Strike In Lancaster

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—State Librarian Walter Brahm says he can't recall anything in his experience quite like Friday's walkout at Lancaster Public Library.

And it appears that Brahm will have a part in settling the difficulty. The disgruntled library staff at Lancaster wants him to establish a wage scale for them.

The trouble apparently started last Tuesday when the Lancaster library's board of trustees approved a salary schedule. It called for $120-$240 increases for the 14 staff members, some of whom work part time. Mrs. Evalan Hansel, the librarian, got a raise from $4,800 to $5,400 per year.

Last Friday the doors of the library—located on the second floor of Lancaster City Hall—were closed and a note listing the staff's complaints tacked up. A similar note was given the library board.

The complaints charged inequality in pay and failure to provide compensating salary increases when vacation time was cut.

Brahm says he thinks the staff will operate the library while the matter is being worked out. Survey sheets have been sent out for employees and supervisors to evaluate each job. From these, the state librarian's office will work out a suggested wage scale.

The local library board will have to take it from there.

$100 Million Bulge Is Seen

$77 Billion Total Labeled Adequate

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower told the new Republican leaders of Congress today his 77 billion dollar budget for the new fiscal year contemplates a surplus of about 100 million dollars.

House GOP Leader Charles A. Halleck of Indiana told newsmen there is hope of a tax reduction in the next two or three years if the heavily Democratic new Congress goes along with Eisenhower's spending and legislative programs.

The President's budget for the fiscal year starting July 1 will go to Congress next Monday. The White House recently announced it would be a balanced budget calling for spending about 77 billion dollars—approximately two billion less than in the current year.

Today, Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois said in reply to a question that Eisenhower informed the GOP congressional delegation the budget actually contemplates a surplus of about 100 million dollars.

In the current fiscal year a deficit of about 12 billion dollars is in prospect. This was Eisenhower's first meeting with the new congressional chiefs since election of new leaders last week.

In advance of the White House session Dirksen said he expected only a general discussion of the legislative program. He said there was no arrangement to report to Senate Republicans, who have yet to set up their policy committee.

Halleck, who defeated the veteran Rep. Joseph W. Martin Jr. of Massachusetts for the leadership post, headed the House delegation.

At today's session Budget Director Maurice Stans gave the lawmakers a preview of the administration budget. Raymond J. Saulnier, chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisors, previewed the economic report Eisenhower will send to Congress next Tuesday.

Eisenhower's blueprint for a balanced budget has been under fire from some Democrats in Congress. They have called the budget unrealistic and inadequate for national security.

But Halleck said the GOP leaders at today's session were "all impressed with the attainability of a balanced budget next fiscal year without any sacrifice or unduly injuring any of the essential functions of government."

Both Halleck and Dirksen said the budget calls for spending reductions in some areas but outlay for other programs to be increased.

Dirksen added that the budget

Landslide Hits 2 Youths, Boy Buried Alive

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif. (AP)—A rain soaked landslide at Land's End near the Golden Gate buried a high school youth Monday as he hiked with his girl friend up a cliff from China Beach.

Bill Stolter, 16, and Margaret Valentine, 15, had been taking photographs at the beach after finishing classes at Washington High School.

"Suddenly I heard a rumble, a terrible roaring noise," the girl said at Park Emergency Hospital where she was treated for shock, bruises and scratches.

She added that:

"I looked up the hill and saw it coming. I got as far as the time I jumped to the right, toward the water. I think Bill jumped the other way."

"The mud and rocks crashed down over us. I don't know if I was knocked down or fell, but my foot hurt and I was buried up to my waist. I dug and scraped with my hands and after about five minutes I could pull myself out."

"I looked for Bill. He was gone."

Firemen dug for hours in an unsuccessful attempt at recovering the boy's body until police called off the digging for the night.

$100 Million Bulge Is Seen

$77 Billion Total Labeled Adequate

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower told the new Republi-can leaders of Congress today his 77 billion dollar budget for the new fiscal year contemplates a surplus of about 100 million dol-lars.

House GOP Leader Charles A. Halleck of Indiana told newsmen there is hope of a tax reduction in the next two or three years if the heavily Democratic new Con-gress goes along with Eisenhower's spending and legislative pro-grams.

The President's budget for the fiscal year starting July 1 will go to Congress next Monday. The White House recently announced it would be a balanced budget calling for spending about 77 billion dollars—approximately two billion less than in the current year.

Today, Senate Republican Lead-er Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois said in reply to a question that Eisenhower informed the GOP congressional delegation the bud-get actually contemplates a surplus of about 100 million dollars.

In the current fiscal year a de-ficit of about 12 billion dollars is in prospect. This was Eisen-hower's first meeting with the rep-resentatives of the House since election of new leaders last week.

In advance of the White House session Dirksen said he expected only a general discussion of the legislative program. He said there was no arrangement to report to Senate Republicans, who have yet to set up their policy committee.

Halleck, who defeated the veter-an Rep. Joseph W. Martin Jr. of Massachusetts for the lead-ership post, headed the House dele-gation.

At today's session Budget Di-rector Maurice Stans gave the lawmakers a preview of the ad-ministration budget. Raymond J. Saulnier, chairman of the Presi-dent's Council of Economic Ad-visers, previewed the economic re-port Eisenhower will send to Con-gress next Tuesday.

Eisenhower's blueprint for a bal-anced budget has been under fire from some Democrats in Con-gress. They have called it "ad-eg-ate unrealistic and inadequate for national security."

But Halleck said the GOP lead-ers at today's session were "all impressed with the attainability of a balanced budget next fiscal year without any sacrificing or unduly in-juring any of the essential func-tions of government."

Both Halleck and Dirksen said the budget calls for spending re-ductions in some areas but outlay for other programs to be in-creased.

Dirksen added that the budget (Continued on Page Two)

Landslide Hits 2 Youths, Boy Buried Alive

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif. (AP)—A rain soaked landslide at Land's End near the Golden Gate Landed a high school youth Monday as he hiked with his girl friend up a cliff from China Beach.

Bruce Stoller, 16, and Margaret Valentine, 15, had been taking photographs at the beach after finishing classes at Washington High School.

"Suddenly I heard a rumble, a terrible roaring noise," the girl said at Park Emergency Hospital where she was treated for shock, bruises and scratches.

She added that: "I looked up the hill and saw it coming and I got as at the time I jumped to the right, to-ward the water. I think Bill jumped the other way."

"The mud and rocks crashed down over us. I don't know if I was knocked down or fell, but my foot hurt and I was buried up to my waist. I dug and scraped with my hands and after about five minutes I could pull myself out."

"I looked for Bill. He was gone."

Firemen dug for hours in an unsuccessful attempt at recover-ing the boy's body until police called off the digging for the night.

American Indian Apologizes for U.S. 'Savages'

DURAND, Mich. (AP)—Chief White Bird, who represents 4,000 Chippewa Indians in Michigan, has mailed Soviet Dep. Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan an apology for the eggs thrown at him during his visit to Detroit Thursday.

"When the white men first came to America, we Indians treated them as guests should be treated," White Bird wrote. "We continued to treat them as guests as long as they conducted themselves as guests. We were often referred to as uncivilized savages."

"You being a visitor of this one Indian territory of Michigan, I must apologize for the way some of the modern savages behaved while you were here. So far you have conducted yourself very well during your stay here."

Stock Prices Dip; Trading Is Brisk

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market dipped moderately in brisk trading early this afternoon. Losses of most leading stocks went from fractions to about a point. There were assorted gainers.

The market was mixed in early dealings but minus signs increased gradually, tilting the balance to the downside.

Steels were lower and copper mixed despite news of greatly increased steel production and higher copper prices in domestic and world markets.

American Telephone was down about 3 points after fluctuating at a lesser loss. U.S. Steel halved a loss of around a point.

Reichhold Chemical spurred about 2 points.

A leaning toward the upside was shown by airlines, mail order retailers and electronics. Steels, rubbers and rails were mostly lower.

Liggett & Myers moved up more than a point in an otherwise easy tobacco group.

American Motors was steady and Chrysler up a fraction. General Motors and Ford took slight losses.

Eastman Kodak picked up a point. American Cyanamid was around a point lower.

Moderate losses were shown by New York Central, Southern Pacific, Schering, Goodyear, Boeing, General Dynamics, International Telephone, Texas Co., Royal Dutch and General Electric. U.S. Gypsum was off about 2.

U.S. government bonds were off a bit.

Motto Over Door Has New Meaning

PHILADELPHIA, Pa. (AP)—Charles Fine, a 70-year-old grocer, was slugged on the head and shot through the chest Monday by a teenage boy who tried to rob him.

The boy and a companion fled without any money and Fine flung a carton of soda after them. Then he was rushed to a hospital.

A few hours later he walked out of the hospital, chatting amiably with reporters and police, and went home to recuperate. The bullet had gone through his chest, but had missed his vital organs.

The grocer has a motto painted over the front door of his store. "The Lord has been good to me," it says.

Halleck said the program represents some belt tightening, but not in areas which would impair national security.

In his State of the Union message last Friday, Eisenhower said his program holds out hope for tax relief in the foreseeable future. Halleck made the same statement today.

Asked to define the foreseeable future, Halleck said he thinks tax cuts will be possible in two or three years if Congress backs the Eisenhower program.

Rep. Leo Allen of Illinois, senior Republican on the House Rules Committee, indicated there was some discussion of Eisenhower's tentative plan to go to the country with a series of fireside chats in an effort to win support for his program.

Dirksen remarked he had seen news stories saying Eisenhower will go over the heads of the members of Congress to the people. The President, Dirksen added, has "nothing of the kind" in mind.

Oberlin Raps Oath Wording In Loan Setup

OVERLIN, Ohio (AP)—The wording of a loyalty oath in a new federal loan program for college scholarships has drawn the fire of the Oberlin College Student Council. And the faculty may also chime in.

The Council described as "a new and serious danger" a requirement that loan and scholarship applicants swear they are not members of and "do not believe in" any subversive organization.

"Restriction of any one belief, as distinguished from concrete action taken in pursuit of that belief, carries with it implications of frightening proportions for all belief," the council resolved.

Last August when Congress adopted the National Defense Education Act to help education in the interest of national security, it incorporated the oath in the legislation. Congress appropriated 47½ million dollars. Oberlin College has applied for an undi-sclosed amount.

The faculty at Oberlin has objected to such loyalty oaths in the past, and a college spokesman said the subject may come up in a faculty meeting.

Mayo Experts Plan Checkup Of Evangelist

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (AP)—Ailing revivalist Billy Graham heads today for an appointment with Mayo Clinic specialists. Cautions by Vice President Richard M. Nixon to "get some rest," he still plans a cru de in Australia.

But he is postponing the start by at least a week and is not sure whether he will be able to go through with other projected visits on a world tour.

The 40-year-old preacher may learn this week the cause of an ailment that has left him with only 50 per cent vision in his left eye. It has been described as a "rare and serious condition" by his father-in-law, a doctor.

Arriving by air Monday night from Dallas, Tex., Graham told newsmen he received a telephone call earlier in the day from Nixon in Washington, advising him to get as much rest as possible.

"He told me from personal experience he knew it was possible to win a battle and lose the war," Graham said.

Graham's trouble was described by an associate as a ruptured blood vessel behind the retina of the left eye. Dr. R. Nelson Bell, his father-in-law, advised Australian officials from Montreal, N. C., Monday that Graham's condition was rare and serious, brought on by overwork.

American Indian Apologizes for U.S. 'Savages'

DURAND, Mich. (AP)—Chief White Bird, who represents 4,000 Chippewa Indians in Michigan, has mailed Soviet Dep. Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan an apology for the eggs thrown at him during his visit to Detroit Thursday.

"When the white men first came to America, we Indians treated them as guests should be treated," White Bird wrote. "We continued to treat them as guests as long as they conducted themselves as guests. We were often referred to as uncivilized savages."

"You being a visitor of this one Indian territory of Michigan, I must apologize for the way some of the modern savages behaved while you were here. So far you have conducted yourself very well during your stay here."

Stock Prices Dip; Trading Is Brisk

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market dipped moderately in brisk trading early this afternoon. Losses of most leading stocks went from fractions to about a point. There were assorted gainers.

The market was mixed in early dealings but minus signs increased gradually, tilting the balance to the downside.

Steels were lower and copper prices dipped despite news of greatly increased steel production and higher copper prices in domestic and world markets.

American Telephone was down about 3 points after fluctuating at a lesser loss. U.S. Steel halved a loss of around a point.

Reichhold Chemical spurted about 2 points.

A leaning toward the upside was shown by airlines, mail order, retail and electronics. Steels, rubbers and rails were mostly lower.

Liggett & Myers moved up more than a point in an otherwise easy tobacco group.

American Motors was steady and Chrysler up a fraction. General Motors and Ford took slight losses.

Eastman Kodak picked up a point. American Cyanamid was around a point lower. Moderate losses were shown by New York Central, Southern Pacific, Seaboard, Goodyear, Boeing, General Dynamics, International Telephone, Texas Co., Royal Dutch and General Electric. U.S. Gypsum was off about 2.

U.S. government bonds were off a bit.

Motto Over Door Has New Meaning

PHILADELPHIA, Pa. (AP)—Charles Fine, a 70-year-old grocer, was slugged on the head and shot through the chest Monday by a teenage boy who tried to rob him.

The boy and a companion fled without any money and Fine flung a carton of soda after them. Then he was rushed to a hospital.

A few hours later he walked out of the hospital, chatted amiably with reporters and police, and went home to recuperate. The bullet had gone through his chest, but had missed his vital organs.

The grocer has a motto painted over the front door of his store. "The Lord has been good to me," it says.

Halleck said the program represents some belt tightening, but not in areas which would impair national security.

In his State of the Union message last Friday, Eisenhower said his program holds out hope for tax relief in the foreseeable future. Halleck made the same statement today.

Asked to define the foreseeable future, Halleck said he thinks tax cuts will be possible in two or three years if Congress backs the Eisenhower program.

Rep. Leo Allen of Illinois, senior Republican on the House Rules Committee, indicated there was some discussion of Eisenhower's tentative plan to go to the country with a series of fireside chats in an effort to win support for his program.

Dirksen remarked he had seen news stories saying Eisenhower will go over the heads of the members of Congress to the people. The President, Dirksen added, has "nothing of the kind" in mind.

Oberlin Raps Oath Wording In Loan Setup

OBERLIN, Ohio (AP)—The wording of a loyalty oath in a new federal loan program for college scholarships has drawn the fire of the Oberlin College Student Council. And the faculty may also chime in.

The Council described as "a new and serious danger" a requirement that loan and scholarship applicants swear they are not members of and "do not believe in" any subversive organization.

"Restriction of any one belief, as distinguished from concrete action taken in pursuit of that belief, carries with it implications of frightening proportions for all belief," the council resolved.

Last August when Congress adopted the National Defense Education Act to help education in the interest of national security, it incorporated the oath in the legislation. Congress appropriated 47½ million dollars. Oberlin College has applied for an undi-scounted amount. The faculty at Oberlin has objected to such loyalty oaths in the past, and a college spokesman said the subject may come up in a faculty meeting.

Police reported the call was made last October. The woman made a date with Englert. Police accompanied her and arrested him.

Heeter Gets OSP Sentence

Shirley Lee Heeter Jr., 22, of 178 Nicholas Drive, today in Pickaway County common pleas court was sentenced to the Ohio State Penitentiary for violation of probation.

Heeter received sentences to run concurrently of from one to 20 years for auto theft and from one to 15 years for breaking and entering an uninhabited dwelling.

Heeter was placed on probation April 26, 1958 for the two charges after his release from the OSP. He was indicted by the January, 1957 term of the County grand jury for auto theft committed on Nov. 11, 1956 and breaking and entering committed on Nov. 12, 1956.

He was arrested by the Sheriff's Department after being involved in an accident. While being treated at Berger Hospital for injuries received in the accident, he escaped. He was apprehended soon after.

Rescuers Recover Bodies of 9 Fliers

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP)—Rescuers reached the shattered bulk of an Air Force plane high on an Alaskan glacier Monday and began the task of bringing out the bodies of nine crewmen.

The crippled C124 failed to clear a 5,200-foot mountain range late Sunday as it came in, with two of four engines out, for an emergency landing at Homer, on the tip of the Kenai Peninsula. The giant plane was demolished as it struck Petrof Glacier between the 3,000 and 4,000 foot levels.

The C124 took off from McChord AFB in Washington about noon Saturday on a flight to Kodiak, Alaska. It carried more than 17 tons of classified military cargo.

Muny Court Imposes Stiff Sentences for Intoxication

Motorists driving under the influence of intoxicants felt the wrath of Circleville Municipal Court yesterday and today.

Four drivers paraded before Judge Sterling M. Lamb's bench to answer charges of driving under the influence. All were convicted.

The stiffest penalty was handed to Herbert W. Gaines, 46, of 130 W. Water St. Cited by the Pickaway County Sheriff's Department, he was fined $300 and costs, sentenced to 30 days in jail and lost his driving rights for three years.

Gaines also was fined $100 and costs and sentenced to five days in jail for driving when his license was under suspension. It marked his third intoxicated driving conviction since 1956.

THE COURT ruled that Gaines' jail terms would run concurrently.

Luther D. Sherman, 55, Columbus, also learned that driving under the influence is a serious offense. Taking a dim view of the accused's second such violation within a year, Judge Lamb fined him $200 and costs, imposed a three-day jail sentence and suspended his driver's license for one year.

Sherman also was fined $100 and costs and sentenced five days for driving while his license had been suspended. The two jail terms will run concurrently. The sheriff's department made the arrest.

Sherman's brother, Ralph, Columbus, also was cited by the sheriff's department for driving while intoxicated. He was fined $100 and costs, sentenced to three days in jail and had his driver's license suspended for six months.

Fred E. Bonner, 45, Columbus, was the fourth motorist appearing for driving when intoxicated. The court ordered a fine of $100 and costs, a three-day jail sentence and three-months' restriction of driver's license. The arrest was by the State Highway Patrol.

James C. Davies, 23, Decatur, Ga., was fined $50 and costs for no auto license plates. He was booked by the State Highway Patrol.

Woodrow Lyons, Columbus, was fined $25 and costs for permitting an unlicensed driver to operate a motor vehicle and $10 and costs for being intoxicated. He was arrested by the sheriff's department.

2 Amish High Schools Hit By State Education Board

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Two Amish-operated high schools appear headed for a long battle with the State of Ohio and the State School Board over minimum educational standards.

E. E. Holt, state superintendent of public instruction, Monday gave the school board a report which stated the two schools of the Menonite religious sect, known as the "Old Order Amish," do not meet the state's minimum standards.

The board, by a 19-2 vote, approved a resolution confirming the department's findings and called on the State Department of Education to give "all lawful assistance" to local authorities in the enforcement of minimum standards, whether through school attendance laws or any other appropriate means.

The resolution thus put the responsibility of enforcing the standards on the local school superintendents.

Henry Hershberger of Apple Creek, representing the Amish school committee, said: "It seems that our way is quite different than what the public demands; we don't like to disobey the law, in fact the Amish Church enjoins that we obey the law of the land."

He asked that the group be given more time and that a meeting of the Amish bishops might be called to discuss the matter.

John W. Morrison of Aurora, who with Russell Hay of Coshocton cast the only two dissenting votes, said the board ought to be more concerned about crime waves and liquor sales to children than attempting to set standards for the two schools. One of the schools is located three miles west of Holmesville in Holmes County; the other is three miles west of Sugar Creek in Tuscarawas County.

Joy told the board: "Let's give them a chance to upgrade themselves, whatever length of time that may be."

When asked why the Amish would not send their children to public or private schools that do meet the state standards, Hershberger answered:

"Worldly wisdom taught in public schools conflicts with our way of life. Our religion is built around simplicity."

When Loren E. Souers Jr. of Canton, a board member, asked Hershberger if the schools could have qualified vocational teachers, plus Amish religious teachers, Hershberger replied that it would be hard for them to have so many different teachers.

Hershberger said he felt what was needed was a court test, that there was a question of inalienable rights involved in the problem.

U.S. Fashions Intrigue French

Dior Aide Enthused About Style Showing

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Women's Editor
NEW YORK (AP)—Every French designer should be required to make periodic trips to America, says Mme. Yvonne Minassian, a petite and knowing blonde who has been with the House of Dior in Paris since its inception.

I talked with Yvonne during the first afternoon's showings of New York spring fashions, staged for 200 members of the nation's fashion press.

As the fresh, youthful — and mass-produced — fashions paraded down the runway, the Frenchwoman's eyes sparkled with appreciation.

"The things are charming," she said. "Anyone would like to wear them. Here in America they work on trends that are needed, I think, while in Paris they just design."

What America will wear next spring was evidenced in the day's showings by such designers as Anne Fogarty, Nettie Rosenstein and Wilson Folmar of the House of Edward Abbott. Yvonne applauded as the new Fogarty designs appeared — fresh, flattering shirtwaist dresses in gay silk prints, capsule sheaths in flannels and linens, sheer, full-skirted date dresses for the young in heart.

When it was announced that these dresses retailed at from $10 up, Yvonne gasped: "How lucky you are, you Americans!"

This alert ambassador of French fashion gives full credit to American know-how in making smart, wearable clothes available to the public at prices within the average budget. But she isn't selling French fashion short.

"I can see in many of these so beautiful dresses inspirations from the last Paris collections," she said. "But they have been adapted so skillfully to the American taste. They are not copies. This I do not mean, but the original feeling perhaps was born in Paris."

Red China Plans Tight Kiddie Curb

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—A Nationalist Chinese government news agency reported today that the Chinese Communists plan to take complete control of small children in communes by making the day nurseries round-the-clock affairs.

At present, mothers leave their children in the nurseries while they are at work. But the Taitao News Agency said the Reds would extend the youngsters' nursery time to exercise stricter control over education and to get even more work out of the mothers.

Gov. DiSalle Starts First Day of Work

And while they were greeting well-wishers, so were the other state officials inaugurated Monday:

Democratic Lt. Gov. John W. Donahy of Alliance, son of the late Governor and U. S. Senator, A. Vic Donahy.

Democratic Atty. Gen. Mark McElroy of Cleveland.

Democratic State Treasurer Joseph T. Ferguson of Columbus, a former state auditor.

Republican Secretary of State Ted W. Brown, the only member of the GOP ticket to survive the Democratic landslide last November.

One of DiSalle's first acts as governor was to sign into law a bill passed last week at his request to raise the salaries of most of his Cabinet officials. He approved the measure — which O'Neill could have signed, but ignored — only 25 minutes after he finished his inaugural address. He started to swear in his cabinet only 30 minutes later.

All Cabinet members except Edward A. Stowell of Toledo took their oaths of office. Stowell will serve as assistant superintendent of insurance until a special bill to raise the superintendent's salary from $10,000 to $14,000 a year can be passed by the Legislature later this week.

Stowell's post was cut out of the general pay raise bill for the cabinet last week when a technicality was raised.

A few hours before he left office, O'Neill sent his final "state of the state" message to the legislature.

O'Neill reiterated in his message a campaign claim that more than 35½ million dollars remain in Ohio's cash balance. This is a far cry from DiSalle's statement that state financial figures—when they finally are assembled—will show an actual deficit.

The week-old 103rd Ohio General Assembly largely marked time for the inaugural festivities, but gets down to work today. In an afternoon session, both houses of the Legislature probably will open the floodgates to the introduction of bills.

Within a matter of hours after Atty. Gen. McElroy was inaugurated, he was asked to investigate and determine the status of supplemental unemployment benefits (SUB) funds which already have been collected under existing labor contracts.

The request was made by Rep. Thomas P. Gilmartin (D-Mahoning). Gilmartin observed: "Thousands of families are in dire need of this money."

The Ohio Supreme Court held recently that simultaneous SUB and state unemployment benefit payments are not permitted by present Ohio law.

It is probable that a bill will be introduced in the legislature today to permit such simultaneous payments. Gilmartin's question to McElroy concerns the fate of SUB funds collected before any such change in the unemployment compensation law becomes effective.

5-Foot-5 Mike DiSalle Stands Very Tall in Ohio

By HAL LISK

COLUMBUS (AP)—The five feet five inches of Mike DiSalle accented the six feet one of Chief Justice Carl V. Weyandt for a few minutes here Monday, but not for long.

"This I do as I shall answer unto God," repeated Mike DiSalle after the chief justice, and then he was the tallest man there. He was the duly elected, duly commissioned and duly sworn 55th governor of Ohio.

A somber C. William O'Neill already had handed DiSalle his commission and had departed. O'Neill, who now will have the time to brush after every meal, had a luncheon engagement elsewhere and escaped the multitude that thronged around the new governor.

It was 12:13 p. m. when DiSalle took over the reins of government and it was 12:29 p. m. when he had finished his brief inaugural address and the formal ceremonies were over.

Watching from standing positions around the west steps of the Statehouse were more than 10,000 persons. The sun shone brightly in a 38-degree air that had the ladies in the official party nestling cheeks against their furs.

Ohio's new first lady, Mrs. Myrtle DiSalle, held the governor's commission, wrapped in a purple ribbon, while her husband took the oath of office. She even carried it to the flower-decked gubernatorial offices.

There DiSalle's first official act was the signing into law of the measure giving most of his Cabinet members pay raises as soon as they are sworn in.

All the Statehouse offices were filled with flowers but only that of Secretary of State Ted W. Brown was filled with Republicans. Brown was the only Republican to survive last November's Democratic sweep in the statehouse and only his office had a visit from the official photographer of Republican State Headquarters.

Of the five living ex-governors of the Buckeye State, three were present—if you count O'Neill. Absent were Sen. Frank J. Lausche and John W. Bricker just retired from the U. S. Senate.

Thomas J. Herbert, a two-year governor now an Ohio Supreme Court Judge, and John Brown, an 11-day governor now a member of the Legislature in the House, had their pictures taken with DiSalle.

DiSalle, the official inauguration committee, and new Cabinet members left the governor's office for the platform about 11:50 a. m. The then still-Gov. O'Neill took his place on the platform beside Mrs. Betty O'Neill at 12:09, just in time to hand over the commission of office.

In his brief inaugural talk, DiSalle praised William L. Coleman, the state Democratic chairman, and the Marysville attorney doffed his hat and took a bow amid a brief flurry of applause.

Toward the end of his talk, DiSalle's pronunciation failed him and he had to repeat the word "perpetuates." But no one seemed to notice much and apparently

2 Amish High Schools Hit By State Education Board

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Two Amish-operated high schools appear headed for a long battle with the State of Ohio and the State School Board over minimum educational standards.

E. E. Holt, state superintendent of public instruction, Monday gave the school board a report which stated the two schools of the Menonite religious sect, known as the "Old Order Amish," do not meet the state's minimum standards.

The board, by a 19-2 vote, approved a resolution confirming the department's findings and called on the State Department of Education to give "all lawful assistance to local authorities in the enforcement of minimum standards, whether through school attendance laws or any other appropriate means."

The resolution thus put the responsibility of enforcing the standards on the local school superintendents.

Henry Hershberger of Apple Creek, representing the Amish school committee, said:

"It seems that our way is quite different than what the public demands; we don't like to disobey the law, in fact the Amish Church enjoins that we obey the law of the land."

He asked that the group be given more time and that a meeting of the Amish bishops might be called to discuss the matter.

John W. Morrison of Aurora, who with Russell Hay of Coshocton cast the only two dissenting votes, said the board ought to be more concerned about crime waves and liquor sales to children than attempting to set standards for the two schools. One of the schools is located three miles west of Holmesville in Holmes County; the other is three miles west of Sugar Creek in Tuscarawas County.

Joy told the board: "Let's give them a chance to upgrade themselves, whatever length of time that may be."

When asked why the Amish would not send their children to public or private schools that do meet the state standards, Hershberger answered:

"Worldly wisdom taught in public schools conflicts with our way of life. Our religion is built around simplicity."

When Loren E. Souers Jr. of Canton, a board member, asked Hershberger if the schools could have qualified vocational teachers, plus Amish religious teachers, Hershberger replied that it would be hard for them to have so many different teachers.

Hershberger said he felt what was needed was a court test, that there was a question of inalienable rights involved in the problem.

U.S. Fashions Intrigue French

Dior Aide Enthused About Style Showing

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Women's Editor
NEW YORK (AP)—Every French designer should be required to make periodic trips to America, says Mme. Yvonne Minassian, a petite and knowing blonde who has been with the House of Dior in Paris since its inception.

I talked with Yvonne during the first afternoon's showings of New York spring fashions, staged for 200 members of the nation's fashion press.

As the fresh, youthful — and mass-produced — fashions paraded down the runway, the Frenchwoman's eyes sparkled with appreciation.

"The things are charming," she said. "Anyone would like to wear them. Here in America they work on trends that are needed, I think, while in Paris they just design."

What America will wear next spring was evidenced in the day's showings by such designers as Anne Fogarty, Nettie Rosenstein and Wilson Folmar of the House of Edward Abbott. Yvonne applauded as the new Fogarty designs appeared — fresh, flattering shirtwaist dresses in gay silk prints, capsule sheaths in flannels and linens, sheer, full-skirted date dresses for the young in heart.

When it was announced that these dresses retailed at from $13 up, Yvonne gasped: "How lucky you are, you Americans!"

This alert ambassador of French fashion gives full credit to American know-how in making smart, wearable clothes available to the public at prices within the average budget. But she isn't selling French fashion short.

"I can see in many of these beautiful dresses inspirations from the last Paris collections," she said. "But they have been adapted so skillfully to the American taste. They are not copies. This I do not mean, but the original feeling perhaps was born in Paris."

Gov. DiSalle Starts First Day of Work

And while they were greeting well-wishers, so were the other state officials inaugurated Monday:

Democratic Lt. Gov. John W. Donahy of Alliance, son of the late Governor and U. S. Senator, A. Vic Donahy.

Democratic Atty. Gen. Mark McElroy of Cleveland.

Democratic State Treasurer Joseph T. Ferguson of Columbus, a former state auditor.

Republican Secretary of State Ted W. Brown, the only member of the GOP ticket to survive the Democratic landslide last November.

One of DiSalle's first acts as governor was to sign into law a bill passed last week at his request to raise the salaries of most of his Cabinet officials. He approved the measure — which O'Neill could have signed, but ignored — only 25 minutes after he finished his inaugural address. He started to swear in his cabinet only 30 minutes later.

All Cabinet members except Edward A. Stowell of Toledo took their oaths of office. Stowell will serve as assistant superintendent of insurance until a special bill to raise the superintendent's salary from $10,000 to $14,000 a year can be passed by the Legislature later this week.

Stowell's post was cut out of the general pay raise bill for the cabinet last week when a technicality was raised.

A few hours before he left office, O'Neill sent his final "state of the state" message to the Legislature.

O'Neill reiterated in his message a campaign claim that more than 35½ million dollars remain in Ohio's cash balance. This is a far cry from DiSalle's statement that state financial figures — when they finally are assembled — will show an actual deficit.

The week-old 103rd Ohio General Assembly largely marked time for the inaugural festivities, but gets down to work today. In an afternoon session, both houses of the Legislature probably will open the floodgates to the introduction of bills.

Within a matter of hours after Atty. Gen. McElroy was inaugurated, he was asked to investigate and determine the status of supplemental unemployment benefits (SUB) funds which already have been collected under existing labor contracts.

The request was made by Rep. Thomas P. Gilmartin (D-Mahoning). Gilmartin's question to McElroy concerns the fate of SUB funds collected before any such change in the unemployment compensation law becomes effective.

5-Foot-5 Mike DiSalle Stands Very Tall in Ohio

By HAL LISK

COLUMBUS (AP)—The five feet five inches of Mike DiSalle accentuated the six feet one of Chief Justice Carl V. Weyandt for a few minutes here Monday, but not for long.

"This I do as I shall answer unto God," repeated Mike DiSalle after the chief justice, and then he was the tallest man there. He was the duly elected, duly commissioned and duly sworn 55th governor of Ohio.

A somber C. William O'Neill already had handed DiSalle his commission and had departed. O'Neill, who now will have the time to brush after every meal, had a luncheon engagement elsewhere and escaped the multitude that thronged around the new governor.

It was 12:13 p. m. when DiSalle took over the reins of government and it was 12:29 p. m. when he had finished his brief inaugural address and the formal ceremonies were over.

Watching from standing positions around the west steps of the Statehouse were more than 10,000 persons. The sun shone brightly in a 38-degree air that had the Ohio's new first lady, Mrs. Myrtle DiSalle, held the governor's commission, wrapped in a purple ribbon, while her husband took the oath of office. She even carried it to the flower-decked gubernatorial offices.

There DiSalle's first official act was the signing into law of the measure giving most of his Cabinet members pay raises as soon as they are sworn in.

In his brief inaugural talk, DiSalle praised William L. Coleman, the state Democratic chairman, and the Marysville attorney doffed his hat and took a bow amid a brief flurry of applause.

Toward the end of his talk, DiSalle's pronunciation failed him and he had to repeat the word "perpetuates." But no one seemed to notice much and apparently few cared.

The remainder of the day was scheduled to be a busy one, for Gov. DiSalle and Mrs. DiSalle alike. After lunch in the gubernatorial offices and a hand-shaking session with invited personages who filled the Statehouse rotunda and all the hallways, Mrs. DiSalle was to have tea with Democratic women.

The governor was to be guest, along with his Cabinet members and other newly-elected officials, at a smoker sponsored by the Press Club of Ohio.

Defense Shakeup Is Watched

In Washington, Congress and the White House alike are anxiously appraising their joint reorganization of the Defense Department.

Last July in the Defense Reorganization Act of 1958, the Pentagon was given until January 1 to set up a new operational structure designed for greater efficiency in handling anything from a brush-fire conflict to World War III.

This streamlining measure was a joint effort in the sense that Congress, ever jealous of its own authority in defense matters, gave the President most of what he wanted—but not without rephrasing some White House proposals and rejecting others. At the President's most urgent request, for example, the Defense Secretary was given broader and more direct control of the armed forces. This involved authority to unify commands, to bypass the respective service secretaries in operational matters and, in general, to put an end to recurrent service rivalries.

Also at the President's urging, the Joint Chiefs of Staff now will concentrate on general strategy and operations with a more powerful JCS chairman and a greatly expanded joint staff. The three service chiefs will delegate their former administrative duties to vice chiefs of the respective services.

Congress balked, however, at relinquishing its constitutional responsibility for maintaining and regulating the armed forces through its control over Defense Department appropriations. Finally, Congress can veto any peacetime move by the Defense Secretary to transfer or abolish a service's "major combatant function."

Mikoyan Is Here and Talking

What exactly is Anastas Mikoyan saying on his visit to the United States when he isn't voicing asinine platitudes or juvenile boasts? News reports are that he said Russia would not close access by Western powers to Berlin and also that he says Russia will not change its position on the former German capital.

Obviously the American officials he talks to are not outlining in detail what the Soviet second in command is saying. They stick to the diplomatic give-and-take which holds that only platitudes should be made public.

On the surface it would appear that Mikoyan is playing a very skillful game of dodge-the-question by talking around it.

This policy of keeping the West guessing is an old one for the Russians who are experts at it.

The one fact that is irrefutable is this: Mikoyan is here in the U. S. and is talking. This indicates that the Khrushchev position is not as rigid as had been assumed.

A Boon for Hypochondriacs

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

This has been a great decade for hypochondriacs. Eighty new viruses affecting the human system were discovered in the last 10 years. And did you know 750 million prescriptions now are filled yearly in the United States?

In ancient days salt was an expensive luxury. Now more salt is sprinkled on icy roads in America than is used on food.

Ever wonder about the milkman's job? Well, the average milkman covers 25 miles a day, makes 125 stops, and delivers 500 containers.

Apt definition: "Tact," says Grace Downs, operator of an air hostess school, "is the ability to make a point without making an enemy."

Tip for housewives: if you place a shoebox top in the bottom of your shopping bag, the bag won't tip over every time you set it down.

During World War II, Americans joked at British fondness for tea breaks. Now more than 60 per cent of U.S. industrial workers have coffee breaks on the job.

Speaking of tea, did you know there are 3,000 varieties of this brew? Like French wines, they are named for the districts where they are grown.

The high cost of living: "Few things today," says Shannon Fife, "are more expensive than a girl who is free for dinner."

If your dog has an annoying habit of gnawing your slippers or biting his own nails in public, you can cure him by giving him a new canine chewing gum. The seven-inch-long sticks are beef flavored and won't stick to dog, rug, or furniture.

Another new product: a German physician has developed a pill made of yeast and plant extracts which he claims will keep you sober no matter how heavily you drink. Who on earth would want a pill like that?

Odd ruling: if a member of your family has a bad heart and you buy him a special reclining chair, it is tax deductible—but only if the rest of the family stays out of the chair. If a guy from the Internal Revenue Service calls at your home, don't let him sit in it either!

In some Middle European countries during the 18th century, according to a historical study by the Bon Ami Institute, Matrimony held an unusual reward. After marriage a girl no longer had to bathe. Some women today believe a wedding ring gives them the right to show up at breakfast in a sloppy robe and wearing their yesterday's face.

A recent survey of 5,000 American husbands showed that three out of four help their wives with housecleaning chores.

The young generation: "Many a teenager has driving ambition," points out actor Walter Slezak. "That's why their parents have to hide the keys to the family car."

Life is so unfair to men note: a man is considered medically obese if his fat exceeds 20 per cent of his body weight; but a woman isn't regarded as obese unless she is more than 25 per cent fat.

Promotion May Cause Jitters

By Herman N. Bundesen, M.D.

A job promotion isn't always the happy experience it is supposed to be.

Very often the realization that you will have new duties, additional responsibilities, produces an unsettled feeling in the stomach.

Taking a remedy for an upset stomach isn't going to help, at least not much. The butterflies are apt to persist for a week or longer no matter how much sodium bicarbonate you swallow.

So why should a doctor be interested in something medicine can't cure?

Well, I am interested in any kind of physical or emotional stress that affects your business or home life. And because so few words of advice are available to persons in such a position, I think it is just as important, medically, as the common cold, which we can't cure with medicine, either.

This uneasy feeling which generally besets one confronted with a new situation, can affect your entire life. For those who give up easily, it means rejection of the new position, the new opportunities, in favor of continuing with easier and more familiar duties.

For those of you who are willing to "see it through" even though your appetite and your sense of security suffer, it means you have taken one more step up the ladder of business success.

Let's analyze the reasons for that queasy sensation.

Fundamentally, most of us tend to resist changes. It is human nature to feel nostalgic for good experiences of the past. And you are apt to recall those experiences when you think about your future duties.

Many college freshmen experience somewhat the same sensation during their first days away from home. In effect, the troubles of both the employee with the new job and the new college student are the same—homesickness, a feeling of insecurity, uncertainty and fear of the unknown.

While the ailment may be acute, it is seldom lasting. The remedy is fairly simple and effective.

Lose yourself in your new job. Keep busy, work and work hard. Not only will this keep your mind off your fear of your inability to handle the situation, it will also impress the boss and he will be sure he picked the right man for the job.

At home, talk about your problems, your feelings, with your wife. I'm sure that she will give you the confidence you need to go out and do a real bang-up job, which, of course, will no doubt lead to another promotion — and another bout of job-homesickness.

Question and Answer

A.S.: Is there any cure for hardening of the arteries?

Answer: Hardening of the arteries (arteriosclerosis) is still considered a universal noncurable of the aging process. However, since it occurs earlier and more extensively in some people than in others, individual factors such as heredity, diet, occupations and other unknown conditions probably contribute to its causation.

At present, no cure for this condition is known. However, since most of the symptoms of arterial hardening are due to interference with circulation, much can be done to improve their manifestations.

The World Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Liberals looked amateurish compared with the professionalism of Sen. Lyndon Johnson of Texas who outmaneuvered their efforts to make it much easier to smash a filibuster.

To make a long story short: When the showdown came they didn't have the votes. Johnson did. Knowing the thoroughness of Johnson, it seems safe to say he had his votes lined up beforehand and the liberals didn't.

What happened would indicate one of two things about the fight they made:

1. Either they were overly optimistic on the support they'd get from the rest of the Senate and didn't make a nose count, or—

2. They knew their chance was slim but decided to go ahead and fight anyway for the sake of the record and to get at least some concessions.

Under the old Senate Rule No. 22 a filibuster could be stopped only by a two-thirds vote of all the senators, or 66 of the 98 senators. A filibuster, is a prolonged talking spree whose sole purpose is to prevent some bill or measure from coming to a vote.

Such a two-thirds vote is tremendously difficult to get in the Senate, where so many members traditionally cherish the right — which any one of them might want to use someday — to block a distasteful measure.

In addition, the rule provided no means at all — not even that big two-thirds vote — for stopping a filibuster against a motion to change the rule.

The liberals set out to get the rule changed right at the start of this session of Congress last Wednesday. They wanted it changed to let a simple majority — 50 of the 98 members — stop a filibuster.

But Johnson, leader of the majority Democrats, grabbed the floor right from the start. This was his right, as leader. And he beat the liberals to the punch by proposing that Rule No. 22 be changed this way:

To let a filibuster be stopped — not by the full two-thirds vote of 66 of the 98 senators or by 50 of the 98 — but by a simple two-thirds vote of just those senators present on the floor at voting time.

This may seem lots easier to get. In actual practice, it probably wouldn't be, because on anything so important as breaking a filibuster, most of the senators would be present anyway.

But it was a concession to the liberals. Southern Democrats, who have used the filibuster to block civil rights legislation, didn't like the concessions. It was more than they wanted to yield. It was less than the liberals wanted.

But Johnson, whose job is to try to keep all the Democratic senators working together during the year on legislation he wants passed, is a master at compromise. What he proposed about the rule change was enough of a compromise to win the votes it needed for adoption.

From the time Johnson made his proposal, the liberals had almost impossible going. The reason: Johnson had made a concession that wouldn't antagonize the Southerners too much and would satisfy those other senators who thought Rule No. 22 ought to be softened a bit but not too much.

The result: The liberals were voted down on one attempt after another to get the rules changed to their liking, thus paving the way for overwhelming adoption of Johnson's proposal.

There's no doubt the liberals did a lot of homework: Research on the history of Rule No. 22 and the filibuster. But in the terribly important field of practical politics — votes — whatever they did wasn't enough.

Ruether Crossed Picket Line

We have all heard what a sin it is to cross a picket line. Personally, I cross one all the time because I object to compulsion. I object to another guy telling me what I can or cannot do. But I never thought that I would see the day when Walter Ruether would cross a picket line and I have received telephone call after telephone call telling me of this astonishing event. I could not go to see it because I am still convalescent.

Of course, Ruether might defend himself by saying that it was not an authorized picket line but neither was his sit-down strike in 1936-37 authorized; yet it was that strike which moved him from a ranting soap-box Socialist to a labor leader and now he is a labor statesman and has an enormous voice in the affairs of the Democratic Party.

So, Walter Ruether crossed the picket line. It was to go to lunch with Anastas Mikoyan, not a luncheon arranged by the AFL-CIO, as some reported, but by James Carey, another labor statesman with some pretensions of being anti-Communist. Carey tried to say that he gave the luncheon in honor of Mikoyan at the request of the State Department. It would be interesting to know who in the State Department made such a request of Brother Carey, because inquiry does not disclose such a request at all.

On the contrary, it is denied as being against policy. George Meany, president of the AFL-CIO did not go to Carey's luncheon in honor of Mikoyan, Meany being a substantial citizen who hates Communists uncompromisingly. Also Meany dislikes dictators, tyrants, men who murder other men or who commit genocide. Walter Ruether apparently has no identical scruples.

Not only that but this was a picket line of Hungarians, Bulgarians and other slave peoples whose brothers had been murdered by Khrushchev and their colleagues. The picket line was a protest against the butchery of these peoples. The refugees marched in protest against Mikoyan for the harm he did their people and they were duly dispersed by the police, although picket lines are supposed to be respected, nay, even revered by the police.

Perhaps it is different in Washington where foreigners have to be treated with kid gloves lest they fail to love us or something.

One begins to wonder how impromptu the luncheon was that was suddenly sprouting in honor of the tourist Anastas Mikoyan. He came here to look around and he had no preparation, no agenda, no previous arrangements or understanding. He is given no formal reception of any kind but suddenly Eric Johnston and Jim Carey and Cyrus Eaton spring forward with obviously well-prepared parties.

Fortunately no ticket-tape parade has been arranged in New York where there could be real trouble, considering the number of Hungarians, Poles, Czechs and even anti-Communist Armenians who live in this town. It must be that in other cities, the opposition has been pacified, although in Cleveland, a woman did throw a rock.

Anastas Mikoyan, the Armenian trader, might find some countrymen in New York who are not so happy about the fate of Armenia, just as there are people here from every country behind the Iron Curtain. It would be pretty hard for them to take this man as an honored guest and while he has thus far managed to evade the picket lines of those who have had to leave their homelands, the politicians and the labor statesmen who wine and dine this man will sooner or later have to face them.

And so one watches each day as it goes by. One watches Mikoyan make like an American candidate for local office who gives the little boy a stick of candy, and who goes into the supermarket to shake hands with anyone who will shake hands with him or who pretends to eat doughnuts dunked in coffee. Next he will kiss the babies — watch out for mononucleosis!

Of course, Mikoyan does not need votes and one wonders who set up this program and for what purpose. What are we being softened up for? Maybe, Mikoyan will go down to Texas and get one of those enormous hats and a string tie and make like an old-fashioned senator. Who knows what can happen on this trip?

Defense Shakeup Is Watched

In Washington, Congress and the White House alike are anxiously appraising their joint reorganization of the Defense Department.

Last July in the Defense Reorganization Act of 1958, the Pentagon was given until January 1 to set up a new operational structure designed for greater efficiency in handling anything from a brush-fire conflict to World War III.

This streamlining measure was a joint effort in the sense that Congress, ever jealous of its own authority in defense matters, gave the President most of what he wanted—but not without rephrasing some White House proposals and rejecting others. At the President's most urgent request, for example, the Defense Secretary was given broader and more direct control of the armed forces. This involved authority to unify commands, to bypass the respective service secretaries in operational matters and, in general, to put an end to recurrent service rivalries.

Also at the President's urging, the Joint Chiefs of Staff now will concentrate on general strategy and operations with a more powerful JCS chairman and a greatly expanded joint staff. The three service chiefs will delegate their former administrative duties to vice chiefs of the respective services.

Congress balked, however, at relinquishing its constitutional responsibility for maintaining and regulating the armed forces through its control over Defense Department appropriations. Finally, Congress can veto any peacetime move by the Defense Secretary to transfer or abolish a service's "major combatant function."

Well, I am interested in any kind of physical or emotional stress that affects your business or home life. And because so few words of advice are available to persons in such a position, I think it is just as important, medically, as the common cold, which we can't cure with medicine, either.

Let's analyze the reasons for that queasy sensation. Fundamentally, most of us tend to resist changes. It is human nature to feel nostalgia for good experiences of the past. And you are

Fortunately no ticket-tape parade has been arranged in New York where there could be real trouble, considering the number of Hungarians, Poles, Czechs and even anti-Communist Armenians who live in this town. It must be that in other cities, the opposition has been pacified, although in Cleveland, a woman did throw a rock.

Anastas Mikoyan, the Armenian trader, might find some countrymen in New York who are not so happy about the fate of Armenia, just as there are people here from every country behind the Iron Curtain. It would be pretty hard for them to take this man as an honored guest and while he has thus far managed to evade the picket lines of those who have had to leave their homelands, the politicians and the labor statesmen who wine and dine this man will sooner or later have to face them.

And so one watches each day as it goes by. One watches Mikoyan make like an American candidate for local office who gives the little boy a stick of candy, and who goes into the supermarket to shake hands with anyone who will shake hands with him or who pretends to eat doughnuts dunked in coffee. Next he will kiss the babies — watch out for mononucleosis!

Of course, Mikoyan does not need votes and one wonders who set up this program and for what purpose. What are we being softened up for? Maybe, Mikoyan will go down to Texas and get one of those enormous hats and a string tie and make like an old-fashioned senator. Who knows what can happen on this trip?

County, Township Governments To Receive $29,000

The Pickaway County Welfare Office received $108,813.41 from the State last year for poor relief.

Reflecting the hardships of the 1958 recession, payments by the state for poor relief during 1958 hit a record high of more than 47 million dollars, State Auditor James A. Rhodes reported.

This was in addition to the millions provided by counties and cities out of local funds.

A total of $47,676,740 in poor relief funds was distributed by the state in 1958. In 1957 the state put out $32,383,726 in poor relief.

TWO EMERGENCY outlays of relief money helped to send total payments to a new high for a single year. One was an additional appropriation of $6,000,000 in poor relief funds that was made at a special session of the legislature last June.

The other was an advance distribution in December by Rhodes of $5,000,000 in poor relief money which would normally have been made in February 1959.

County Receives $108,813 For Relief in 1958

Pickaway County will receive $20,000 in gas tax money for the county's highways, and each of the county's 15 townships will get $800 this week from State Auditor James A. Rhodes.

First distributions of state-collected taxes in the new year will send $5 million in gasoline and sales tax money to local governments.

Total going for county roads is $1,760,000 and for townships roads, $1,064,800.

The sales tax distribution amounting to $2,040,943.09 is being sent to county treasurers and will be divided among local governments within the county by county auditors.

Contractor Guilty Of Drunken Driving

CINCINNATI (AP)—A jury deliberated 37 minutes Monday before finding Orville B. Williams, 50, Middletown, guilty of drunken driving. Municipal Court Judge Gilbert Bettman sentenced him to three days in the workhouse, fined him $50 and suspended his driving for one year. Williams, a roofing contractor, contended smoke from hot pitch made him appear bleary-eyed when he was arrested Nov. 10. Police said Williams drove down a one-way street the wrong way, stopped and blocked traffic for five minutes and then backed into a fence.

School Pupil Costs Detailed

Arkansas Pays Least, Oregon Most in U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Arkansas spends the least per pupil and Oregon the most among the 32 states in which school districts operate the public schools, the Census Bureau reported today.

Operating outlays per pupil in Arkansas in 1957 were $154, the census survey of school district finances showed.

This was well below half the amount spent in Oregon, $356 per pupil. The school enrollments are roughly comparable: Arkansas enrolled 388,000 pupils in October 1956, and spent $59,854,000; Oregon had 340,000 pupils and spent $120,951,000.

Second lowest state in per capita outlay was South Carolina, $165. Third was Alabama $177. Then came Kentucky, $185, and Georgia, $192. All other states spent more than $200 per pupil.

After Oregon at the upper end of the scale was California with $355. School operating outlays in that state approached the billion-dollar mark; educating California's 2,809,000 enrolled pupils cost $996,051,000.

The third highest state in per capita outlay was Wyoming, $347. The other states followed in order:

Nevada, $334; Montana, $329; Illinois, $327; Washington, $314; Arizona, $314; Michigan, $308; Colorado, $305; Pennsylvania, $301; New Mexico, $298; Kansas, $298; Iowa, $286; Missouri, $285; Ohio, $285; Indiana, $278; Texas, $272; Nebraska, $272; Louisiana, $269; Florida, $265; South Dakota, $264; North Dakota, $258; Utah, $249; Oklahoma, $245; Idaho, $237; West Virginia, $205.

Oil Industry Also Bothered By Politics

Weather Is Additional Factor in Cost of Product to Consumer

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—Guessing how much oil the world is going to use in any particular period is a highly specialized job in the petroleum industry. Getting crude oil and its products to the point of demand on time is another. Both can affect your pocketbook.

Politics and weather can influence both. Examples:
1. Closing of the Suez Canal due to international politics disrupted the normal flow of Mid East oil to western Europe. The result was a busy workout for oil producers in the United States, followed by higher prices for American consumers.

2. Unusually bitter weather of late in many parts of this nation is leading to a rise in fuel oil prices in some places and prospects of the same elsewhere.

3. Threats of an upcoming strike against some oil companies shortly also could mean some shortages, higher prices some places.

Every day about 700 million gallons of oil products are delivered to consumers in the world this side the Iron Curtain. To get it to them the oil companies first take some educated guesses as to where the demand will be, and how much in each spot. Then they turn to fleets of ocean tankers, river barges, motor tank trucks, railroad tank cars, and pipelines.

The last, being largely invisible, go mostly unnoticed in the United States. Here they run a poor second to a much more extensive pipeline system, the some 500,000 miles of natural gas lines.

But oil pipelines continue to grow. The first pipe line of any size was a 5-mile, 2-inch diameter job in 1865, six years after the first discovery well was drilled in Pennsylvania.

Now five million barrels of crude oil and oil products each day pour into thousands of separate, slow-moving streams, part of a network that covers 190,000 miles in this country.

They carry 77 per cent of the crude oil produced in the United States and 19 per cent of the refined products sold.

Dear Abby...

Good Husband at a Premium

DEAR ABBY: My husband is an insurance salesman which gets him inside lots of houses I wish he never saw the inside of. One woman in particular. In the first place the street she lives on isn't even in his territory. In the second place his commission from her policy is only thirty cents a week. Once she called him up in the middle of the night to tell him he forgot to give her change for fifty cents. He says she's strictly business, but his eyes shine when he talks about her. Outside of that, he's a good husband. Am I wrong to ask him to transfer her to somebody else to keep him away from temptation?

JEALOUS
DEAR JEALOUS: Good husbands are at a premium and keeping him away from temptation is the best policy.

DEAR ABBY: My nephew expects to marry a girl who has a small child born out of wedlock. They are going to live in the same city with us, where he is known but she is not. How should we explain the child?

AN AUNT
DEAR AUNT: When a man marries a woman with a child, it is assumed that the child is hers from a "former marriage." There is no need to "explain" otherwise.

DEAR ABBY: About six months ago a real trouble maker moved into our block and was asked to join our group. She decided she needed more education so at the age of 38 she started back to college with all them kids. I said if she got along for 38 years without college she could get along for another 38. Right? That isn't all. She's a reformer. She got one grandmother to take a correspondence course to get her High School diploma and another one going to Business College. To cap it all she decided that every woman on our block should vote, so she yakked and pestered till she got her way. This is a free country and I don't need anybody to run my life. The neighborhood isn't the same since she took over. What do you suggest?

BUGGED
DEAR BUGGED: I suggest you choose your own friends and allow your neighbors the same privilege.

DEAR ABBY: It's too late for me but if you print my letter it may help other girls from making the same mistake I made. I fell in love at 15. Nobody could talk me out of it, either. The boy was 16. We went steady for two years and did a lot of things we had n. business doing. At 17 I thought we had to get married so I quit school and got married in a hurry and then found out we didn't have to. We live with his folks and now he blames me for "tying him down" but he runs with his buddies while I sit home with his parents. Now I AM pregnant, Abby, and am stuck with him. Will you PLEASE tell girls to LISTEN TO THEIR PARENTS AND NOT TO GO STEADY IN HIGH SCHOOL?

"KNEW IT ALL"
CONFIDENTIAL TO RON: Quit twisting her arm. An unwilling bride makes a poor wife.

TV Picture May Blight New Romance

SIRACUSA, Sicily (AP)—A photograph flashed on Italian television threatened today to blight a transatlantic romance that bloomed from a note in a bottle.

The note was written by Margherita Bettelli, 28, a Genoa girl who worked in a liquor establishment. She tucked the note in the cork of a bottle, part of a shipment to Venezuela.

Margherita now is aboard the liner Venezuela bound for the South American country of the same name to meet Francesco Mule, the man who answered her note and offered to marry her.

But Sunday night, when the Italian television network aired Mule's picture, Paola Muscica Mule, 34, mother of two children in this Sicilian city, shouted, "Why that's Franco!"

"It's papa!" cried her two children, Paolo and Maria, 12 and 9. Mrs. Mule told the Italian press that she and a man named Francesco Mule, who was born here 37 years ago, were married here in 1946. In 1950, she said, he migrated to Venezuela and established himself at Caracas, working as a tailor.

In 1952 he returned and a few months later, according to the wife, took her and the children back to Caracas. Mrs. Mule said they lived there several months, but then her husband said he was in financial difficulty and sent her and the children back to her parents in Sicily.

She said she had not heard from her husband since.

Disapproved the transfer of a portion of Mahoning local school district to Salem.

Approved $220,228 for the Plymouth Local School District in Richland County for school building assistance.

Defeated a proposal by Walter Beckford of Cincinnati which would prohibit the teaching of training during regular school hours. He proposed that all new drivers be required to take a state approved driver training course but that it be given after regular school hours.

Five men were named to the new district board. They were Herbert Ritter, president of the Jackson-Burgoon District, Sandusky County; Royal Harrison and Edward Kissabeth, both of the Jackson-Liberty Board in Seneca County, and Otis Bower and Norman Swaisgood, both on the RisingSun Board in Wood County.

Another six high schools are being continued on temporary charters pending action to better their standards. They are Albany in Athens County, Fulton in Fulton County, Greenwich in Huron County, Howard in Knox County, Waterloo and Windsor in Lawrence County.

The board approved the creation of a tri-county school district in Sandusky, Seneca and Wood counties. The district will be assigned to the Sandusky County school system, effective Jan. 17, the board ruled.

TV Picture May Blight New Romance

SIRACUSA, Sicily (AP) — A photograph flashed on Italian television threatened today to blight a transatlantic romance that bloomed from a note in a bottle.

The note was written by Margherita Bettelli, 28, a Genoa girl who worked in a liquor establishment. She tucked the note in the cork of a bottle, part of a shipment to Venezuela.

Margherita now is aboard the liner Venezuela bound for the South American country of the same name to meet Francesco Mule, the man who answered her note and offered to marry her.

But Sunday night, when the Italian television network aired Mule's picture, Paola Muscia Mule, 34, mother of two children in this Sicilian city, shouted, "Why that's Franco!"

"It's papa!" cried her two children, Paolo and Maria, 12 and 9.

Mrs. Mule told the Italian press that she and a man named Francesco Mule, who was born here 37 years ago, were married here in 1946. In 1950, she said, he emigrated to Venezuela and established himself at Caracas, working as a tailor.

In 1952 he returned and a few months later, according to the wife, took her and the children back to Caracas. Mrs. Mule said they lived there several months, but then her husband said he was in financial difficulty and sent her and the children back to her parents in Sicily.

She said she had not heard from her husband since.

'Advertising, Good and Bad' Topic for Hospital Guild

She also showed the group a magazine pointing out the various ads which because of their location would be most costly to the advertiser. She also explained something about the research which goes into selecting colors, shapes, and sizes both for the product, its package and advertising it.

Little Texas Team Scores Mighty Cincy

Bearcats Chalk Win But Need Overtime To Avoid Major Upset

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
An unpublicized college from Denton, Tex. had the basketball world taking notice today following a stirring performance that resulted in a relatively poor night for Oscar Robertson and a near upset of the Cincinnati Bearcats.

As it turned out, little North Texas State lost to sixth-ranked Cincinnati 64-56 in overtime. But not before the Bearcats had come within inches of defeat.

With only six seconds remaining and the score deadlocked 49-all in regulation time, a shot by Rod Byrd of North Texas State hit the rim and bounced away.

Robertson was held to 19 points until he added seven free throws and one field goal in the overtime for 28 points.

Cincinnati was one among four teams in the top 10 to see action Monday night.

Kentucky, which dropped to second place behind North Carolina State in the latest poll, finished strong to beat Tulane 85-68. Kansas State (No. 4) clobbered Oklahoma 90-45 and Bradley (No. 7) outlasted Houston, 60-50.

Kansas State's victory left it in a two-way tie for the Big Eight lead with the Kansas Jayhawks, who swamped Iowa State 69-48. In other Big Eight competition, Nebraska defeated Missouri 81-69 and Colorado, rebounding from a top-lopped loss to Kansas State, turned back Oklahoma State 65-52.

Bradley's triumph enabled the Braves to move into sole possession of the runner-up position behind Cincinnati in the Missouri Valley Conference. The Bearcats hold the lead on the strength of their 85-84 success over Bradley in overtime Jan. 5.

Elsewhere in the Missouri Valley Conference, St. Louis got hot in the second half and beat Tulsa 78-61 and Wichita's Shockers led all the way to get past Drake 61-52.

Victories by Indiana, Illinois and Michigan in the Big Ten enabled each to tie for the conference lead, replacing vanquished Minnesota. Indiana beat the Gophers 63-59 on the strength of a 21-for 29 performance from the free throw line. Roger Taylor and Mennie Jackson had 24 points apiece as Illinois rode over Iowa 103-97 and Michigan, paced by John Tidwell's 37 points, defeated Wisconsin 84-74.

Myers and Melvin Take Cage Lead

Scioto's Dickie Melvin and Williamsport's David Myers tied for leadership in the Pickaway County individual scoring race with identical 24.6 point averages.

Melvin and Myers clashed head-on Friday night in a league battle, with Williamsport coming out on top, 77-54. Myers made the better showing of the two men, garnering 29 points and passing off brilliantly.

Melvin clicked for 26 points, 16 coming in the final period. Saturday night Melvin notched 19 points in Scioto's second loss in a row after six straight wins, to Mt. Sterling, 54-44.

Myers gained 0.4 of a point, while Melvin dropped 0.7 of a point. Though dropping 0.7 of a point, Ashville's Bobby Hoover maintained his third place position with a 23.2 average.

GARY Valentine, sinking 30 points in Saltcreek's victory over slump-ridden Atlanta, increased his fourth slot average nearly a point for a 22.3 average.

Jackson's Charlie Galloway retained fifth position with a 21.9 average, dropping 0.3 of a point. Sixth place went to perhaps the county's most improved player, Pickaway's Harry Lee.

The Pirate senior chalked up 58 points in two contests last week-end to increase his average 2.2 of a point for a strong 21.2 average.

Darby's Tommy Walters regained his point making form last week with a 25-point performance against Monroe. He holds an 18.6 average, good enough for seventh place.

Atlanta's Ronnie Morris gave up his position to Walters this week, dropping to eighth with an 18.1 average. Morris dropped 0.3 of a point off his average, while Walters picked up 0.7 of a point.

Jackson's Jerry Brigner again this week switched places with Darby's Tommy Liff. Brigner moved into ninth over Liff on the basis of a 17.1 average, improving 1.1 of a point.

Liff remained steady at 16.1 to hold a well fortified tenth position. Improving fast last week was Walnut's Boyd Barr with a 14.9 average after tallying 28 points in the Tigers' 96-65 win over Jackson.

Other top players around the County were Monroe's scoring twins, Larry Bigam, 13.8, and Steve Fullen, 14.6, and Scioto's Ernie Milburn, 13.3.

Of the 14 players mentioned, seven increased their averages, six dropped and one remained steady. Top field goal shots were Deercreek's Myers and Ashville's Hoover, with 125 and 123 respectively. At the free throw line, Myers was on top with 70.

Unknown Texan Wins at Tijuana

TIJUANA, Mex. (AP) — Golf's professional wanderers today headed for Bing Crosby's big show at Pebble Beach next weekend with a new name and a new record written into the books here.

The name was Ernie Vossler of Midland, Tex., and the record was the 72-hole score of 273 which netted him victory in the $20,000 Tijuana Open Monday.

Vossler knocked off a barrage of birdies en route to his second major tournament triumph, touring the par 36-36-72 Tijuana Country Club course in 36-32-68. The sturdy, bespectacled Texan broke the tournament record by seven strokes. E. J. (Dutch) Harrison set the 280 mark a year ago. Harrison was unable to compete this year.

SPORTS BRIEFS

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The 1958 champions—Class AA Cleveland East Tech and Class A North-western of Wayne County—still reign as kings of Ohio high school basketball.

The two victors in last March's state tournament were voted the best of the new season today as 37 sports writers cast ballots in the opening Associated Press poll. The winning margins of both were terrific.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The State Racing Commission today granted requests which will give the central Ohio area 14 additional nights of pari-mutuel harness racing.

Kentucky's basketball team finally lost a game last week and lost first place in the Associated Press weekly major college ratings as a result.

Three Ohio college basketball teams kept various unblemished records intact Monday night. Cincinnati remained unbeaten in the Missouri Valley Conference, Steubenville ran its victory string to 34 straight and Youngstown notched its 13th consecutive home court victory.

County, Area Teams Prep For 17-Games This Week

Top game of basketball action this week will be the battle between Darby and Lynwood, two undefeated aggregations.

A total of 17 games are on tap for Pickaway County and area teams this week. Five contests are set for tonight, 10 for Friday and two on Saturday.

Undefeated Darby will meet its stiffest test Saturday when it travels to Lynwood (Jacksontown) to take on one of central Ohio's toughest squads.

The Trojans will be looking to avenge a drubbing Lynwood handed them in the first game of the Class "A" District Tournament held last spring.

DARBY WILL need to rebound and play its best to stop 6-6 Nat Holman and crew of six footers who recently handed Pleasantville its second loss, 81-71.

Action tonight finds Atlanta traveling to Good Hope in their second get-together of the season. The Red Raiders, 3-8, will be out for a repeat of earlier play when they blasted GH, 75-36, in their best night of the year.

British Champ Hoists Price On Patterson

LONDON (AP)—Newly crowned British heavyweight champion Henry Cooper today hoisted his price for tackling world champion Floyd Patterson to $140,000.

"That's what we want for any fight against Patterson," manager Jim Wicks said. "It doesn't matter whether the fight is here or in the States — that is our figure."

But Cus D'Amato, Patterson's manager, was far from receptive to Wicks' demands when he was contacted in New York.

"For one thing," D'Amato snapped, "the defeat does not eliminate London. For another thing, many people are anxious to fight for the world heavyweight championship. None of them is in a position to dictate to the champion. Perhaps the one who makes the most concessions will wind up with the title bout."

The 24-year-old Cooper jumped into a contender's spot with a 15-round decision over Brian London at London's Earls Court Stadium Monday night.

It was one of the bloodiest heavyweight fights ever seen in the British ring.

Both fighters finished badly cut around the eyes — but Cooper's flashing left jabs won him the title.

Cooper, a classic boxer, outclassed a brawling, mauling London. The Associated Press gave 11 rounds to Cooper, 4 to London.

British promoter Jack Solomons wants to match him now against European champion Ingemar Johansson of Sweden in a European title fight in London in June.

"We'll listen to every offer and take the one that brings the most cash," Wicks said.

Dartmouth basketball player Chuck Kaufman also played short-stop for the Big Green varsity.

The tourney's first round will be divided into four districts. The Southeast District finds Washington battling Pickaway in the Saltcreek gymnasium.

Northeast District foes are Walnut versus Ashville on the Tiger court. Atlanta faces Jackson at Williamsport in a Southwest District fray.

Monroe meets Darby in the Northwest District opener at Scioto. All games start at 3 p. m. Saturday except the Monroe-Darby contest which will begin at 2 p. m.

SALT CREEK will meet the winner of the Southeast District, South Bloomfield faces the Northeast District winner.

Williamsport takes on the winner of the Atlanta-Jackson game and Scioto will be pitted against the Northwest District winner. These four battles will start at 5 p. m. Monday.

The County's semifinals will throw the winners of the Southeast District against the Northwest District. The Southwest winners will face the Northeast winners. These games will be held at 7 p. m. and 8.15 p. m. January 24 at Jackson.

The tourney finals and consolation games will be held at 7 and 8.15 January 31 at Jackson. Tournament manager is John McPherson, Darby Junior high coach.

The foul shooting contest will be held in conjunction with the tournament. Officials for the tournament have been selected from within the county.

Saltcreek Nips Washington, 32-27

Saltcreek handed Washington a 32-27 defeat yesterday afternoon in Pickaway County junior high basketball action.

Washington took a 7-6 first quarter lead, but fell behind in the second canto when it could only manage two points. Saltcreek notched nine points in this period for a 15-9 halftime advantage.

Washington came within two points of knotting the score in the fourth stanza. The Warriors caught fire at this point and clicked off 10 straight points to cinch the win.

Arthur Murray, Benny Horne and Terry Anderson led the Warrior attack with 12, 10 and 8 points respectively. Game scoring honors went to Washington's Dick Fowler with 15 points.

Tigers Go for Sixth Win In Cage Test at Lucasville

Circleville's basketball squad will be seeking its sixth win and first on a foreign court Friday night in a trip to Lucasville, Scioto County.

To date the Tigers have won all five home games, but have lost all three on the road. Four of the wins here have been South Central Ohio League tests, good enough to give the locals a first place loop deadlock with Wilmington.

3 Cage Contests Set for Thursday

Three Independent League basketball games are scheduled Thursday night at the Pickaway County Coliseum.

First game, slated for 7 p. m., pits Ashville vs Kirk Furniture. This test will be followed by Veterans of Foreign Wars vs Yingling Hybrids. The finale of the evening cards River Oil vs Dunlaps.

River Oil appears to be the team to beat. The Oilmen won the first round of play with five straight wins and have captured their first contest in the second round.

VFW ended the first round with a 4-1 record and has won its only start in the second round.

Local Gun Club Holds Trap Shoot

O. C. Voss, Columbus, registered top score at a Trap Shoot held Sunday at the Route 23 Gun Club. Voss tallied 91 of a possible 100.

All trap shooters were taking aim at 20 yards except two. Other scoring was recorded by D. T. Binns, Chillicothe, an 87 and a 70 at 19 yards;

Richard Harmount, Bainbridge, 84; Judd Dresbach, 527 N. Pickaway St., 83 and 66; George Henderson, Bowling Green, 81 and 79; Wheeler Rittinger, Route 2, 79;

Alfred Van Fossen, 518 E. Union St., 75; Norman Myers, 75 at 19 yards; R. P. Geiszler, Columbus, 72; Bill Peterson, Derby, 68; Herbert Fyfe, West Jefferson, 67, and Arthur Wilkins, 151 E. High St., 65.

only Tiger league loss of the season, a 52-36 decision Friday. Both teams are 4-1 in the circuit.

The Tigers came back strong Saturday night to hand invading Paint Valley a 61-54 loss. Their win was paced by the able scoring of four cagers who hit for 12 points or better, a feat which has been a trademark for CHS most of the season.

ASA Elsea topped the attack with 15 points along with 12 each by Joe Adkins, Bob Shadley and Don Rowland. Adkins picked up his markers after coming in to spell Larry Hannahs who had three personals early in the contest.

Coach Dick Snouffer probably will throw his same control type offense against Lucasville. The pass and cut Tigers usually do not get a large number of shots, firing only at the peak opportunity.

Coach Snouffer's strategy has paid off in the won and lost column in addition to giving the Tigers a well-balanced scoring attack.

3 Men Linked to Death Of Ex-Columbus TV Newsman

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Two men have been arrested and a third is being sought in the mysterious death of former television newsman Ed Wood, police disclosed Monday night.

Held are Robert G. Edwards Jr., 34-year-old tenant of the building where Wood's badly beaten body was found last Thursday, and Carl Oscar Lewis, 28, of Columbus. Wanted is Alfred Spencer Trayham, 32, also of Columbus. Missing from Wood's body were his wallet, coat and wrist watch.

Police, who hold to the theory that Wood died in a fall down stairs, said that on Wednesday night, Wood cashed a payroll check at a bar and after several stops at other bars, left with a man he apparently knew. They disappeared for a couple of hours.

Later, Wood was brought to Edwards' third floor apartment, where Edwards said Lewis and Trayham brought Wood to "roll" him.

Edwards told the two men he "didn't want any part of it," and the two left taking Wood down the stairs with them.

Edwards said he heard the two hit Wood on the second floor landing. He said Wood cried:

"Don't hit me. You don't have to beat me up. You can take what I have."

Edwards said the two left Wood in a room and took his coat.

Lewis' statement paralleled Edwards' except he said he was in Edwards' apartment when Trayham brought Wood to the third floor.

Both Lewis and Trayham were recently released from Ohio Penitentiary.

Lt. Robert Gloeckner said: "It's obvious what happened . . . there was no light . . . no way for light to get in . . . he's been hit . . . had a .3 per cent alcohol count . . . It was darker than the ace of spades . . . the stairs were awful steep . . . he hit the stone at the bottom."

OVERNIGHT-IT'S FORD!

WHY?

Yes, America has voted on the new 59 cars—and it's Ford all the way. In state after state—right across the country, Ford is already selling 'way ahead of its closest competition—why?

Because Ford is Built for People. Ford design is not only the most strikingly beautiful style of the year, but the most sensible, too. It's easier to get in and out, with Ford's inches-wider, open-all-the-way doors. All six passengers, not just four, ride in full-depth seats. There's more head room, leg room, stretch room. Even the larger trunk space is easier to get at.

Because Ford's Prices are Lowest. Check the price tag and you'll see, Ford's lowest priced of the most popular 3. You save up to $100—even more—with the optional equipment you want.

Because Ford is Built for Savings. You save up to a dollar a tankful—with Ford Six and Thunderbird V-8 engines that thrive on regular gasoline. Ford's standard Full-Flow oil filter allows you to change oil only every 4000 miles. Only Ford has such money-saving features as Diamond Lustre Finish that never needs waxing . . . long-life aluminum muffler.

Yes, Compare! We Ford Dealers invite comparison—we like to talk prices—we like to demonstrate. We would love to put you behind the wheel and let you sample the terrific, new Thunderbird "Go" of the World's Most Sensibly Proportioned Cars.

CHAPLEAU, Ont. (AP)—A hunter from the United States, after being warned by a game warden that the roof of his car might be damaged by placing a bull moose on top, replied: "That's all right. There are lots of new cars in the States, but moose are hard to come by."

3 Men Linked to Death Of Ex-Columbus TV Newsmen

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Two men have been arrested and a third is being sought in the mysterious death of former television newsmen Ed Wood, police disclosed Monday night.

Held are Robert G. Edwards Jr., 34-year-old tenant of the building where Wood's badly beaten body was found last Thursday, and Carl Oscar Lewis, 28, of Columbus. Wanted is Alfred Spencer Trayham, 32, also of Columbus.

Missing from Wood's body were his wallet, coat and wrist watch.

Police, who hold to the theory that Wood died in a fall down stairs, said that on Wednesday night, Wood cashed a payroll check at a bar and after several stops at other bars, left with a man he apparently knew. They disappeared for a couple of hours.

Later, Wood was brought to Edwards' third floor apartment, where Edwards said Lewis and Trayham brought Wood to "roll" him.

Edwards told the two men he "didn't want any part of it," and the two left taking Wood down the stairs with them.

Edwards said he heard the two hit Wood on the second floor landing. He said Wood cried:

"Don't hit me. You don't have to beat me up. You can take what I have."

Edwards said the two left Wood in a room and took his coat.

Lewis' statement paralleled Edwards' except he said he was in Edwards' apartment when Trayham brought Wood to the third floor.

Both Lewis and Trayham were recently released from Ohio Penitentiary.

Lt. Robert Gloeckner said: "It's obvious what happened . . . there was no light . . . no way for light to get in . . . he's been hit . . . had a .3 per cent alcohol count . . . it was blacker than the ace of spades . . . the stairs were awful steep . . . he hit the stone at the bottom."

OVERNIGHT-IT'S FORD!

WHY?

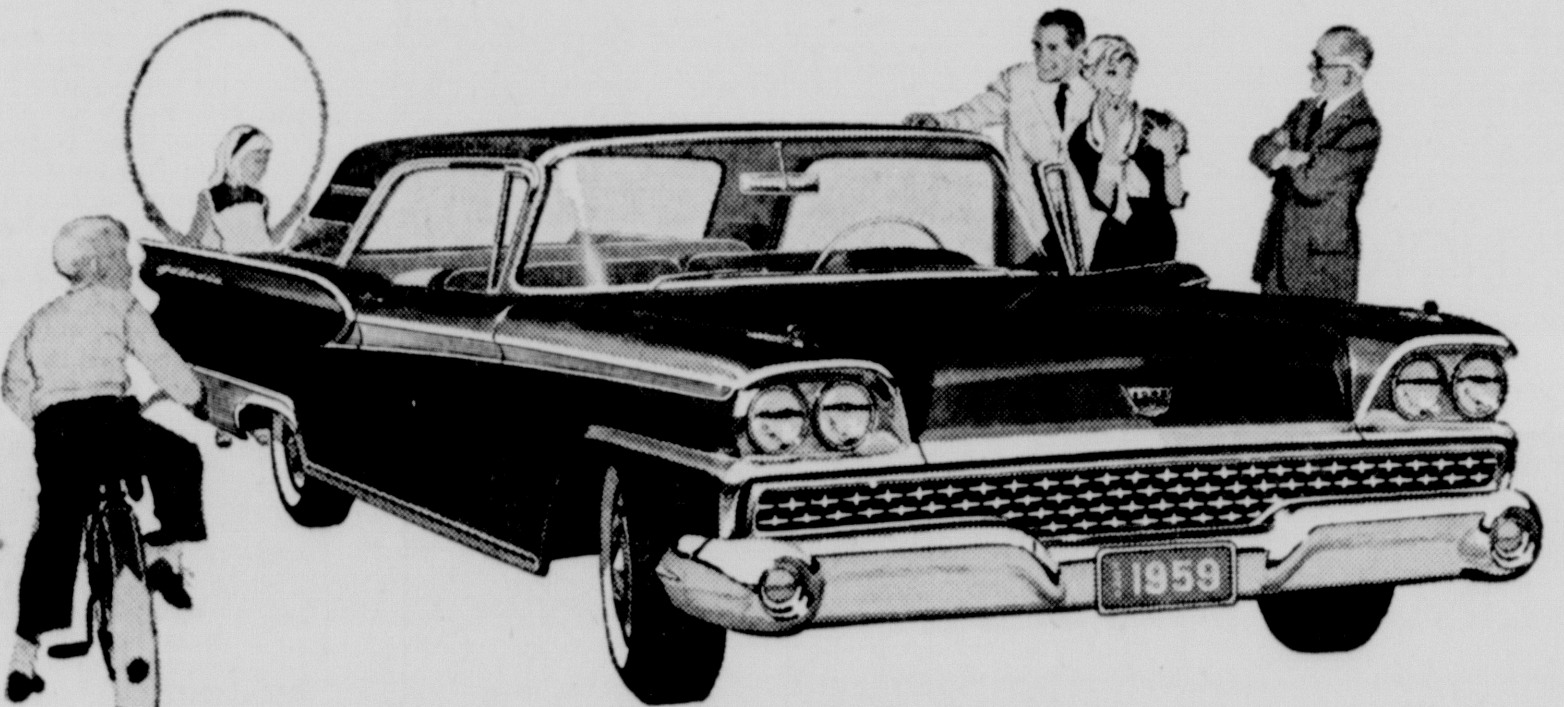

Yes, America has voted on the new 59 cars—and it's Ford all the way. In state after state—right across the country, Ford is already selling 'way ahead of its closest competition—why?

Because Ford is Built for People. Ford design is not only the most strikingly beautiful style of the year, but the most sensible, too. It's easier to get in and out, with Ford's inches-wider, open-all-the-way doors. All six passengers, not just four, ride in full-depth seats. There's more head room, leg room, stretch room. Even the larger trunk space is easier to get at.

Because Ford's Prices are Lowest. Check the price tag and you'll see, Ford's lowest priced of the most popular 3. You save up to $100—even more—with the optional equipment you want.

Because Ford is Built for Savings. You save up to a dollar a tankful—with Ford Six and Thunderbird V-8 engines that thrive on regular gasoline. Ford's standard Full-Flow oil filter allows you to change oil only every 4000 miles. Only Ford has such money-saving features as Diamond Lustre Finish that never needs waxing . . . long-life aluminumized muffler.

Yes, Compare! We Ford Dealers invite comparison—we like to talk prices—we like to demonstrate. We would love to put you behind the wheel and let you sample the terrific, new Thunderbird "Go" of the World's Most Sensibly Proportioned Cars.
